

Festival Opera & The City of San Ramon present
Opera in the Park and Community Fair, Sunday, June 26 ~ 4 p.m.

What: East Bay regional opera company Festival Opera is bringing its popular Opera in the Park to one of the Bay Area's most dynamic cities, San Ramon. Festival Opera is partnering with the City of San Ramon to present a family-friendly summer afternoon of fine music, picnic lunches, and a Community Fair featuring childrens' activities. And, of course, it's all still FREE. So, make plans to enjoy a delightful early-summer program of operatic favorites.

Who: Featured artists include soprano Shawnette Sulker.
Musical director and emcee is conductor John Kendall Bailey.

When: Sunday, June 26, 4 p.m. The program gets underway at 4 p.m. in the amphitheater, so arrive early to stake out a good spot. Chairs, blankets, coolers, non-alcoholic beverages and food are all welcome, but please note that no alcohol or cooking gear is permitted in the park.

Where: San Ramon Central Park, 12501 Alcosta Blvd., San Ramon.
Central Park is located at the corner of Bollinger Canyon Road and Alcosta Boulevard. From I-680, take the Bollinger Canyon exit east to Alcosta. Parking is free.

Shawnette Sulker

For more information: Please visit www.festivalopera.org or call 925-944-9610.

About Festival Opera: Based in Walnut Creek and founded in 1991, Festival Opera has focused on developing innovative and creative productions of classic opera from the standard repertory, Opera in the Park, and rarely-heard productions, commissions, and new works. As Festival Opera enters its 25th anniversary season, the company remains committed to bringing extraordinary opera to San Francisco's East Bay communities.

###

Media contacts:

Sara Nealy
Festival Opera
snealy@festivalopera.org
925.944.9610

Nicole Blazin
City of San Ramon
nblazin@sanramon.ca.gov
925.973.2603